COMMON POLICY CONDITIONS

A. Cancellation

The first Named Insured shown in the Declarations may cancel this policy by mailing or delivering to the Company advance written notice of cancellation. The Company may cancel this policy by mailing or delivering to the first Named Insured written notice of cancellation at least 10 days before the effective date of cancellation if cancellation is for nonpayment of premium, or 30 days before the effective date of cancellation if cancellation is for any other reason.

B. Changes

This policy contains all the agreements between you and us concerning the insurance afforded. The first Named Insured shown in the Declarations is authorized to make changes in the terms of this policy with our consent. This policy's terms can be amended or waived only by endorsement issued by the Company and made a part of this policy.

C. Examination Of Your Books And Records

The Company may examine and audit your books and records as they relate to this policy at any time during the policy period and up to three years afterward.

D. Inspections And Surveys

The Company has the right but is not obligated to make inspections and surveys at any time. Neither the right to make inspections and surveys nor the making thereof nor any report thereon shall constitute an undertaking, on behalf of or for the benefit of the insured or others, to determine or warrant that such property or operations are safe or healthful, or are in compliance with any law, rule or regulation.

E. Premiums

The first Named Insured shown in the Declarations is responsible for the payment of all premiums. The Company will compute all premiums for this policy based on our rates, rules, and forms in effect at the inception of this policy. Premium shown is an estimate. The final premium will be determined after this policy expires by using the actual, not the estimated, premium basis and the proper classifications and rates that lawfully apply to the business and activities conducted during the policy period.

F. Transfer Of Your Rights And Duties Under This Policy

Your rights and duties under this policy may not be transferred without our written consent except in the case of death of an individual named insured. If you die, your rights and duties will be transferred to your legal representative but only while acting within the scope of duties as your legal representative.

COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY COVERAGE FORM

COVERAGE A — BODILY INJURY AND PROPERTY DAMAGE LIABILITY

The Company will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" to which this insurance applies. The Company will have the right and duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking those damages. However, the Company will have no duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking damages for "bodily injury" or "property damage" to which this insurance does not apply. The Company may, at its discretion, investigate any "occurrence" and settle any claim or "suit" that may result.

COVERAGE B — PERSONAL AND ADVERTISING INJURY LIABILITY

The Company will pay those sums that the insured becomes legally obligated to pay as damages because of "personal and advertising injury" to which this insurance applies. The Company will have the right and duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking those damages. However, the Company will have no duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking damages for "personal and advertising injury" to which this insurance does not apply.

COVERAGE C — MEDICAL PAYMENTS

The Company will pay medical expenses as described below for "bodily injury" caused by an accident on premises you own or rent, or because of your operations, provided that the accident takes place in the "coverage territory" and during the policy period. Medical expenses means reasonable charges for medical, surgical, x-ray, dental, ambulance, hospital, professional nursing, prosthetic devices, and funeral services, and includes eyeglasses, hearing aids, and first-aid treatment at the time of the accident.

SUPPLEMENTARY PAYMENTS — COVERAGES A AND B

In addition to the Limits of Insurance, the Company will pay, with respect to any claim or "suit" defended: all expenses incurred by the Company; the cost of bail bonds required because of accidents or traffic law violations arising out of the use of any vehicle; the cost of bonds to release attachments; all reasonable expenses incurred by the insured at the Company's request, including actual loss of earnings up to $250 a day; all costs taxed against the insured in the "suit"; prejudgment interest awarded against the insured; and all interest on the full amount of any judgment that accrues after entry of the judgment.

WHO IS AN INSURED

If you are designated in the Declarations as an individual, you and your spouse are insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of a business of which you are the sole owner. If you are designated as a partnership or joint venture, you are an insured. Your members, your partners, and their spouses are also insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of your business. If you are designated as a limited liability company, you are an insured. Your members are also insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of your business. If you are designated as an organization other than a partnership, joint venture, or limited liability company, you are an insured. Your "executive officers" and directors are insureds, but only with respect to their duties as your officers or directors. If you are designated as a trust, you are an insured. Your trustees are also insureds, but only with respect to their duties as trustees. Your "employees" and "volunteer workers" are insureds, but only for acts within the scope of their employment by you or while performing duties related to the conduct of your business. Any person (other than your "employee" or "volunteer worker"), or any organization while acting as your real estate manager, is an insured but only with respect to their duties as such. Any person or organization having proper temporary custody of your property if you die is an insured, but only with respect to liability arising out of the maintenance or use of that property and only until your legal representative has been appointed.

LIMITS OF INSURANCE

The Limits of Insurance shown in the Declarations and the rules below fix the most the Company will pay regardless of the number of insureds, claims made, or "suits" brought, or persons or organizations making claims or bringing "suits." The General Aggregate Limit is the most the Company will pay for the sum of: medical expense payments under Coverage C; damages under Coverage A, except damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" included in the "products-completed operations hazard"; and damages under Coverage B. The Products-Completed Operations Aggregate Limit is the most the Company will pay under Coverage A for damages because of "bodily injury" and "property damage" included in the "products-completed operations hazard."

Coverage / Limit	Amount
Each Occurrence	1,000,000.00
General Aggregate	2,000,000.00
Products Completed Ops	2,000,000.00
Personal Advertising	500,000.00

Damage Rented Premises	50,000.00
Medical Expense	10,000.00
Deductible	5,000.00

See Section I — Supplementary Payments for additional amounts payable in addition to the Limits of Insurance (defense costs are outside limits).

COMMERCIAL GENERAL LIABILITY CONDITIONS

1. Bankruptcy

Bankruptcy or insolvency of the insured or of the insured's estate will not relieve the Company of its obligations under this policy.

2. Duties In The Event Of Occurrence, Offense, Claim Or Suit

You must see to it that the Company is notified as soon as practicable of an "occurrence" or an offense which may result in a claim. Notice should include how, when and where the "occurrence" or offense took place; the names and addresses of any injured persons and witnesses; and the nature and location of any injury or damage arising out of the "occurrence" or offense.

3. Legal Action Against Us

No person or organization has a right under this Coverage Part to join the Company as a party or otherwise bring the Company into a "suit" asking for damages from an insured; or to sue the Company on this Coverage Part unless all of its terms have been fully complied with.

4. Other Insurance

If other valid and collectible insurance is available to the insured for a loss the Company covers under Coverages A or B of this Coverage Part, the Company's obligations are limited as described in this condition. This insurance is primary except when the condition below applies. This insurance is excess over any of the other insurance, whether primary, excess, contingent or on any other basis, that is effective prior to the beginning of the policy period.

5. Premium Audit

The Company will compute all premiums for this Coverage Part in accordance with the Company's rules and rates. The premium shown in the Declarations as the advance premium is a deposit premium only. The final premium will be determined after this policy ends by using the actual, not the estimated, premium basis and the proper classifications and rates.

6. Representations

By accepting this policy, you agree that the statements in the Declarations are accurate and complete and that these statements are based upon representations you made to the Company.

7. Separation Of Insureds

Except with respect to the Limits of Insurance and any rights or duties specifically assigned in this Coverage Part to the first Named Insured, this insurance applies as if each Named Insured were the only Named Insured and separately to each insured against whom claim is made or "suit" is brought.

8. Transfer Of Rights Of Recovery Against Others To Us

If the insured has rights to recover all or part of any payment the Company has made under this Coverage Part, those rights are transferred to the Company. The insured must do nothing after loss to impair them. At the Company's request, the insured will bring "suit" or transfer those rights to the Company and help the Company enforce them.

9. Non-Renewal

If the Company decides not to renew this Coverage Part, the Company will mail or deliver to the first Named Insured shown in the Declarations written notice of the non-renewal not less than 30 days before the expiration date. If notice is mailed, proof of mailing will be sufficient proof of notice.

DEFINITIONS

"Advertisement"

A notice that is broadcast or published to the general public or specific market segments about your goods, products or services for the purpose of attracting customers or supporters. For the purposes of this definition, notices that are published include material placed on the Internet or on similar electronic means of communication.

"Auto"

A land motor vehicle, trailer or semitrailer designed for travel on public roads, including any attached machinery or equipment. "Auto" does not include "mobile equipment."

"Bodily Injury"

Bodily injury, sickness or disease sustained by a person, including death resulting from any of these at any time.

"Coverage Territory"

The United States of America (including its territories and possessions), Puerto Rico and Canada; international waters or airspace, but only if the injury or damage occurs in the course of travel or transportation between any places included in the territory described above; and all other parts of the world if the injury or damage arises out of goods or products made or sold by you in the territory described above.

"Electronic Data"

Information, facts or programs stored as or on, created or used on, or transmitted to or from computer software, including systems and applications software, hard or floppy disks, CD-ROMs, tapes, drives, cells, data processing devices or any other media which are used with electronically controlled equipment.

"Employee"

© Hallmark Insurance Group

Includes a "leased worker." "Employee" does not include a "temporary worker."

"Executive Officer"

A person holding any of the officer positions created by your charter, constitution, bylaws or any other similar governing document.

"Hostile Fire"

One which becomes uncontrollable or breaks out from where it was intended to be.

"Impaired Property"

Tangible property, other than "your product" or "your work," that cannot be used or is less useful because it incorporates "your product" or "your work" that is known or thought to be defective, deficient, inadequate or dangerous; or you have failed to fulfill the terms of a contract or agreement; if such property can be restored to use by the repair, replacement, adjustment or removal of "your product" or "your work" or your fulfilling the terms of the contract or agreement.

"Insured Contract"

That part of any other contract or agreement pertaining to your business under which you assume the tort liability of another party to pay for "bodily injury" or "property damage" to a third person or organization, provided the "bodily injury" or "property damage" is caused, in whole or in part, by you or by those acting on your behalf.

"Leased Worker"

A person leased to you by a labor leasing firm under an agreement between you and the labor leasing firm, to perform duties related to the conduct of your business. "Leased worker" does not include a "temporary worker."

"Loading Or Unloading"

The handling of property after it is moved from the place where it is accepted for movement into or onto an aircraft, watercraft or "auto"; while it is in or on an aircraft, watercraft or "auto"; or while it is being moved from an aircraft, watercraft or "auto" to the place where it is finally delivered.

"Mobile Equipment"

Any of the following types of land vehicles, including any attached machinery or equipment: bulldozers, farm machinery, forklifts and other vehicles designed for use principally off public roads; vehicles maintained for use solely on or next to premises you own or rent; vehicles that travel on crawler treads; and vehicles not required by law to be registered for use on public roads.

"Occurrence"

An accident, including continuous or repeated exposure to substantially the same general harmful conditions.

"Personal And Advertising Injury"

Injury, including consequential "bodily injury," arising out of one or more of the following offenses: false arrest, detention or imprisonment; malicious prosecution; wrongful eviction from, wrongful entry into, or invasion of the right of private occupancy of a room, dwelling or premises that a person occupies; oral or written publication, in any manner, of material that slanders or libels a person or organization or disparages a person's or organization's goods, products or services; oral or written publication, in any manner, of material that violates a person's right of privacy; the use of another's advertising idea in your "advertisement"; or infringing upon another's copyright, trade dress or slogan in your "advertisement."

"Pollutants"

Any solid, liquid, gaseous or thermal irritant or contaminant, including smoke, vapor, soot, fumes, acids, alkalis, chemicals and waste. Waste includes materials to be recycled, reconditioned or reclaimed.

"Products-Completed Operations Hazard"

All "bodily injury" and "property damage" occurring away from premises you own or rent and arising out of "your product" or "your work" except products that are still in your physical possession or work that has not yet been completed or abandoned.

"Property Damage"

Physical injury to tangible property, including all resulting loss of use of that property. All such loss of use shall be deemed to occur at the time of the physical injury that caused it; or loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured. All such loss of use shall be deemed to occur at the time of the "occurrence" that caused it.

"Suit"

A civil proceeding in which damages because of "bodily injury," "property damage" or "personal and advertising injury" to which this insurance applies are alleged. "Suit" includes any arbitration proceeding in which such damages are claimed and to which the insured must submit or does submit with the Company's consent; and any other alternative dispute resolution proceeding in which such damages are claimed and to which the insured submits with the Company's consent.

"Temporary Worker"

A person who is furnished to you to substitute for a permanent "employee" on leave or to meet seasonal or short-term workload conditions.

"Volunteer Worker"

A person who is not your "employee," and who donates his or her work and acts at the direction of and within the scope of duties determined by you, and is not paid a fee, salary or other compensation by you or anyone else for their work performed for you.

"Your Product"

Any goods or products, other than real property, manufactured, sold, handled, distributed or disposed of by you or others trading under your name, including containers (other than vehicles), materials, parts and equipment furnished in connection with such goods or products.

"Your Work"

© Hallmark Insurance Group

Work or operations performed by you or on your behalf; and materials, parts or equipment furnished in connection with such work or operations. "Your work" includes warranties or representations made at any time with respect to the fitness, quality, durability, performance or use of "your work."
